CINNAMON VINE BULBLETS.

CINNAMON VINE ROOT.
SMALL SIZE.

TRADE PRICE LIST.

I take much pleasure in offering the following stock — of my own growing — as I am sure it will please you and your customers, and add greatly to your sales.

Being the largest grower of Cinnamon Vines in the United States, — if not in the world, I think I can make lower rates, and give greater satisfaction than can be obtained elsewhere. In fact I now have the patronage of nearly all the American trade and many Foreign houses.

I am pleased to state that I have grown an unusual large stock the past season; and I have reduced prices all along the line. ☞ Please send in your orders early.

CINNAMON VINE ROOTS,

First Size, Selected,	7 to 12 inches.	100–$2.75,	1,000–$22.00.
Second Size,	" 4 to 7 "	" $1.60,	" $12.00.
Third Size, or quality,		" $1.00,	" $ 7.50.

These latter are all fair roots of good growing quality—Just the thing to put in a "Cheap Collection" of Seeds or Plants. They will give perfect satisfaction and are no trouble to pack.

CINNAMON VINE BULBLETS,

First Size, Selected,	1.000 for $3.50,	10,000–$30.00.
Second Size,	" for $2.00,	" $18.00.

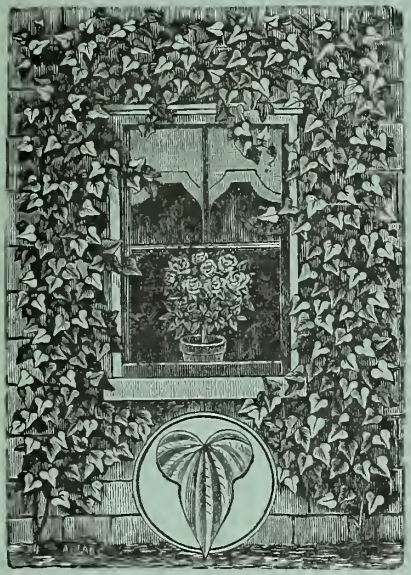
"THE MOST DESIRABLE CLIMBER IN CULTIVATION."



THE CINNAMON VINE.

A beautiful and rapid climber possessing the rare quality of emitting from its flowers the delightful odor of cinnamon, and very appropriately called the "Cinnamon Vine." The plants are grown from bulbs or roots and are very nice for window ornaments, or out-door culture.

When first introduced the roots sold for $10.00 each. They are perfectly hardy; the stem dying down every autumn, but growing again in the spring so rapidly as to completely cover any trellis or arbor very early in the season. The vines often run 25 feet or more, and when trained over and about a door or window make an ornament much admired: while its many clusters of delicate white flowers sends out an amount of fragrance that is truly wonderful. It is easy to cultivate, has no insect enemies, and is not affected by drouth because it roots so deeply. The tubers are called "Chinese Yams;" [the botanical name being DIOSCOREA BATATAS;] they increase in size from year to year, are often two feet long at two or three years of age, and run straight down in deep soil;—flesh whiter than superfine flour and equally as good for table use as the very best potatoes.

You should surely order a liberal number of the Cinnamon Vines. They are most easily grown, and once planted will last a lifetime. Your arbor, window and veranda will all be incomplete without this charming climber There is nothing will give a home a more homelike and cosy appearance, or be a surer index of refinement and culture than Beautiful Vines twining about the porch and trellises.

J. P. RUNG, Tyrone, Pa., says:—"The vine has grown about eighteen feet, and was very full of bloom, with a delicious odor, scenting the air for a long distance. The foliage is very much admired."

S. WILSON. Mechanicsville, Pa. Nov. 27th. 1889, writes:—"We think the Cinnamon Vine is one of the most desirable house plants for winter; it blooms as freely in the house as out doors, and they can be trained over and around a window, and will fill a room with a delightful fragrance in the cold and dreary winter months."

JAS. E, BADJER; Jr., St. Joseph, Mo., says:—The Cinnamon Vine is a success. From one stem a dozen branches have started, ranging from twelve to twenty feet each, and blooming profusely; very fragrant.

Miss EMMA A. FIELD, of Elyria, O., writes:—It is a beautiful vine of rapid growth, beautiful foliage, and a perfume that is perfect.

Mrs. A. MUNDT, of Fairbury, Ill., says:—The vine is very pretty, and pleasing with its bright green and peculiar foliage. I transplanted the roots from a smaller to a larger pot, and was surprised to find the three roots, which were about the size of a lead pencil and half as long, had increased to six roots from one to one and a half inches in diameter, and about eight inches long. Three of these roots, with each one shoot (I trimmed all the rest off), completely fill one of my windows, eight feet long and three feet wide. I intend to try some of them out doors next year.

RETAIL PRICES OF THE CINNAMON VINE.

I will mail three large, selected roots or tubers for 30 cents: six for 50 cts: twelve for $1.00: thirty for $2.00. [no order filled for less than 3 roots.] I pack carefully in boxes, and guarantee safe arrival.

☞ If preferred I will send double the number of second size roots at above prices,—all postpaid.

Hybridized Potato Seed.

SEED BALLS.

I have the pleasure of offering a very choice strain of Potato Seed—the product of numerous hybridizations between many of the best new and old varieties in cultivation. Growing new sorts from the seed-ball seed is a very interesting employment for old or young. There is the widest range of difference in color, shape and general characteristics between the different seedlings; every one is more or less unlike every other. Great success has already attended the attempt to improve this valuable esculent, and the end is not yet—many varieties will yet be found which will bring a golden harvest to the fortunate growers, and prove of inestimable value to the world.

Price, 15 Cts. per Pkt. 2 for 25 cts. 5 for 50 cts. Directions for planting, cultivating etc. on each pkt.

Jesse Green, DAYTON, ILL. writes:—Out of 30 varieties raised from your seed, I selected the earliest and best, and planted them at same time, and in same field with Early Ohio, EarlyRose, and Beauty of Hebron. They have been from one to two weeks ahead of all these kinds, and are now (July 12th.) fully ripe, while the others are still green. They are very productive; and the best eating potato we have. I think I will have 200 bushels.

WM. M. JOHNSON, of Tampico, Ind. writes:—"The packet of Potato-Seed you sent me done well. Some look like the peach-blow, —some are a beautiful pale pink, large and long for a seedling the first year, they are a beauty. Some large white, purple eyes:—some round, pale red, 30 to 50 in a hill:—some pale blue:—some white, flat, and three inches or more long;—two hills of black potatoes, &c. &c. I never saw so many different colors and shapes. If they grow in the same ratio another year, they will be the largest ever raised in this section."
